NCURA to present Pamela Webb with Distinguished Service Award

The National Council of University Research Administrators has chosen Pamela Webb, Associate Vice President for Research, University of Minnesota, to receive its 2009 Distinguished Service Award.

The National Council of University Research Administrators (NCURA) established the Distinguished Service Award in 2001, as a way to recognize members of NCURA who have made sustained and distinctive contributions to the organization.

Pamela Webb has been a member of NCURA since 1991 and has served in many different capacities including her current role as an NCURA Peer Reviewer. She was actively involved in NCURA's 2008 50th anniversary meeting as she served on the 50th Annual Meeting Program Committee, as a Workshop Faculty, Moderator, and also a Senior Summit participant. In addition to having served as NCURA Secretary in 2000-1002, Pamela also has served on the NCURA Board of Directors, its Nominating and Leadership Development Committee, as an Electronic Research Administration Committee member, and she was Co-Chair of NCURA's ERA III Conference. Pamela also has presented at numerous NCURA conferences and both national and regional meetings.

NCURA's Executive Director, Kathleen Larmett notes, "Pamela has always understood the importance of giving back to the community. Over the years, she has undertaken a number of projects on behalf of NCURA and, I know, the membership is very grateful for the knowledge she so willingly shares. We are all pleased to see Pamela receive this award."

Pamela Webb will receive her award at the NCURA 51st Annual Meeting, during a special recognition ceremony on October 22nd at the Washington Marriott Wardman Park Hotel in Washington, DC.

Other 2009 recipients include James Casey, Jr., University of Texas at San Antonio; David Mayo, California Institute of Technology; Georgette Sakumoto, University of Hawaii; and Pamela Whitlock, University of North Carolina at Wilmington (retired).

NCURA is a 7,000 member professional society dedicated to advancing the field of research administration through education and professional development programs, the sharing of knowledge and experience, and by fostering a professional, collegial, and respected community. The Council's Annual Meeting takes place

October 21 - 24, 2009. For more information: www.ncura.edu.
